Bean, bean,

If she addressed her remarks in this direction we should reply promptly that we haustent. We are ever true. The thousands and tens of thousands who are clad by us year in and year out know this.

THAT'S WHY WE HAVE THE TRADE.

The demand for Neckwear this year is something wonderful, and never before were styles so taking: never before were our sales so large. Blacks and Greens are the favorites in tecks, semi-puffs and puffs. Four-in-hands in 24 and 212 inches take the lead. Our stock is complete.

The issue for Sunday, Oct. 13, will consist of Twelve Pages, and will contain, among other good things, the following:

AN INCIDENT OF THE REBELLION.—This is an interesting account of the arrest of Alexander H. Stephens and the escape of Robert Toombs, at the close of the Great Rebellion, in May, 1865. It is a reliable account of these events, and is from the pen of the late Captain Exum Saint, of New Castle, Ind.

A GALAXY OF NOVEL OPINIONS-Being crisp, terse letters from Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Louise Chandler Moulton, Fanny Davenport, Mrs. Frank Leslie, Kate Field, Mrs. Custer, and other wellknown women, telling what they would do if they were men.

ARE OUR WOMEN DECEITFUL?—Maud Howe treats this topic in her own way, and reaches conclusions favorable to the sex of which she is a member.

SITES FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.—Bill Nye takes a lively interest in the great project, and secures the views of the Tramp Fraternity in relation thereto.

His Bones Found Under a New York Village Street, Where They Were Buried in 1758.

TICONDEROGA, N. Y., Oct. 10 .- While laborers were engaged in digging a sewer in one of the principal streets of this village to-day, they struck a tombstone. At the bottom of it was found a coffin containing the bones of a human being. The stone was washed off and found to contain the inscription and date of the death of Lord Howe. The skull was intact, but the rest of the bones were disjointed and considerably decayed. As soon as it had been learned about the village, an immense crowd of people assembled, and many persons made efforts to procure pieces of the bones. The coffin, which was of oak, was in a fairly good state preservation. Several years ago the street where the remains were found was filled in several feet, which accounts for the depth of the tomb-stone's location.

The remains will probably be reinterred at The remains will probably be reinterred at once in the village cemetery. There is considerable excitement here over the discovery. Lord Howe, or George Augustus Howe, was born in England in 1724, and was shet dead in the battle at Ticonderoga on July 8, 1758. He entered the army at a very early age, soon rose to distinction, and in 1757 was sent to this country in command of the Sixtieth Regiment. On July 6, 1758, under Commander-in-chief James Abercrombie, he landed at the outlet of Lake George. Coming suddenly on the French forces two days later at Fort Ticonderoga, he fell at the head of his corps in the ensuing skirmish. in the ensuing skirmish.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 10.—Prof. Otto J. Klotz, chief astronomer of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa, has arrived in this city from Alaska. During his stay he visited the famous Muir glacier, which has attained celebrity by accounts of a mirage reported seen in the ice of the City of Montreal. The story of the mirage of Muir glacier Professor Klotz pronounces a humbug. Many fine reflections are obtained in northern waters of wild scenery and fantastic formations of ice, but such a thing as the reflection of a city thousands of miles distant would be an utter impossibility. He does not consider the atmosphere so far north as capable of producing such a phenomenon, which is generally the result of overheat. Mirages Seen on the Muir Glacier.

CLOSE OF A GREAT CONCLAVE

Indiana Knights Fold Away Their Banners and Prepare to Return Home.

End of the Most Successful Conclave Ever Held by the Templars, and One in Which Indianians Fared Unusually Well.

LEAVING FOR HOME.

Indiana Knights Close Their Headquarters-How They Enjoyed Themselves.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10. - Indiana Sir Knights and their ladies who have attended the triennial conclave, wound up the week of pleasure by attending President and Mrs. Harrison's reception this afternoon, where they enjoyed themselves most thoroughly, and were given unusual attention, and Mrs. Logan's reception to-night. Many of them took the 11:20 train to-night for New York, while others will do so to-morrow, to-morrow night, and on Saturday. There are not more than half the number here tonight that there were yesterday. Indiana headquarters have been closed up. The banners have been taken from the walls, the flags and insignia folded up for the conclave which is to be held at Denver on the second Tuesday in August, 1892, and every man, woman, and child from the State is "going it alone." The beautiful Maltese cross, which was sent to the headquarters by Mrs. Harrison at the opening of the conclave, and which occupied a prominent position in front of the booth in the center of the reception hall, will be retained as a souvenir. Members of Raper Commandery will begin to run into to reach home for the next two weeks. The Knights from Elkhart, Vincennes, Muncie, Anderson and other commanderies Muncie, Anderson and other commanderies will, or most of them, arrive at their homes on Sunday night or Monday. Others will go to New York and various points in the East. Sir Knight J. Irving Riddle, of Terre Hante, left for his home to-night.

The Indianians have done themselves much credit during their stay in Washington, have made many friends, won universal admiration and have had a good time. They all join in praise of Washington hospitality. This has altogether been the most successful conclave ever held, and the Indianians have fared unusually well on account of the natural prestige they carry under this administration and the unusual and uniform courtesies extended to them by the occupants of the White House. The Hoosiers this afternoon were most cordially received by President and Mrs. Harrison, and it was remarked on every hand last night at the reception that no such decoration, music, fire-works and cordiality were ever shown. The display was unusual, and the Indiana people were shown so much consideration that it became a common jocular expression on the part of the people from other States.

Indianapolis to-morrow, and will continue were shown so much consideration that it became a common jocular expression on the part of the people from other States, "Hoosiers, if you see anything you want that is not nailed down, take it."

There was unusual regret expressed by the Indiana people over the iliness of Private Secretary Halford, and many cards were left for him by those who desired to pay their respects. Mr. Halford is improving nicely, and his physicians say that although he will be confined to his bed three or four weeks, he is not in danger, and will soon completely recover and be at his desk.

As usual, the California Knights Templars have achieved great laurels and attracted universal attention. Their headquarters at the Normandie have been open day and night since they arrived on Sunday. The luscious things of the Pacific slope, fruits, wines, etc., have been on tap constantly, and a bounteous spread, prepared by the best caterers in Washington, always greeted the visitors who called at their headquarters. They capped the climax this afternoon by visiting Newspaper Row with loads of the most delicious California raisins, figs and other fruits. They handed out the boxes with the injunction that "proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof," and declared that there was no better advertisement for anythere was no better advertisement for anything than a sample of the article itself. The hospitality of Californians has only been equaled by the natural products of

The reception to-night at the home of Mrs. General Logan ended the triennial conclave. Thousands left the city to-day and to-night, and nearly all of those re-maining will leave to-morrow. By Saturday Washington will have assumed its normal condition. The 100 brass bands which have paraded the streets for four days and nights are departing, and there is less noise and more music. Late to-night there were the usual scenes presented around the city of marching commanderies, many of them accompanied by ladies, all going from headquarters to headquarters, singing songs, waving hats and handkerchiefs, and having a great good

It is conceded that this has been one of the most pleasant and successful conclaves ever held. The attendance of the Knights who participated in the parade is as near 12,000 as can be computed. Outside of this there were probably 2,000 who did not participate in the capacity of Knights. The largest number that has attended any of the conclaves heretofore is estimated at 9,000, so that there were 5,000 more at this conclave than at any of those in the past. Fully twice as many ladies have accompanied the Sir Knights here as were ever in attendance upon a conclave. There were quite as many ladies here as Knights Templars, and the number of visitors who do not belong to the order was probably twice the number of Knights and their ladies, making in all in the neighborhood of 60,000 to 70,000 visitors. This is the most careful computation of the number of visitors in Washington that can be made, and is not in excess of the number actually

MRS. LOGAN'S RECEPTION.

Calumet Place Turned Into a Fairy Palace, Where Knights Roamed at Will.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Washington, Oct. 10. - Mrs. Logan's quaint rooms and cheery home, Calumet Place, the top of the Thirteenth-street hill, was transformed to-night into a fairy palace in honor of the visiting Knights Templars and their ladies. Flags and streamers decked the square old-fashioned mansion from cellar to attic, light streamed from every window, rows and rows of suspended fairy lamps and gelatine cups outlined the verandas, the doors and windows in solid lines of light. The trees in the garden were surrounded by cordons of Japanese lanterns, and high up in the corners of the garden were great bunches of lanterns grouped in the shape of a pagoda. Over all this field of twinkling light were thrown the stronger glare of colored calcuim lights and the scene became indeed a fairy spectacle. In front of the house the Marine Band played, and all around the east wing there were chairs comfortably located for the tired strollers. Calcium lights flooded the roadways and drives in each direction, and at the corner of the garden, where the guests alighted, a big blazing star in gas-jets turned night into day. On the grounds were several tents for wraps, and another as big as alleft them put to sethiew there refreahments were served in the leavish style that the Knights have grown accustomed to here. The table was a state of a compromise. Among the gifts received by Mrs. Logan during the conclave, that of the Golden Gate Commandery, in presenting the black bear that they brought from California, caused the greatest commotion in her household.

Receptions by the President.

Washington, Oct. 10 .- The President and Mrs. Harrison this afternoon received the ladies who accompanied the Indiana commanderies to the conclave, and subsequently the President devoted over an hour to shaking hands with hundreds of visiting Knights Templars and their ladies, who were unable to attend the reception last night. Many visitors to the city also improved the opportunity to pay their respects. The officials at the White House say that the President shook hands with more people to-day than at any one time since the days immediately following his inauguration. The President also gave a special reception, this afternoon, to California Commandery, K. T., of San Francisco; Oakland Commandery, of Oakland, Cal.; Golden Gate Commandery, of San Francisco, and Damascus Commandery, of Newark, N. J. These commanderies were unable to pay their respects last night because of the great crowd.

An interesting incident in connection with the triennial conclave of the Knights Templars was the brigade dress-parade of the District National Guard, on the White Lot, this afternoon. The parade was at request of the triennial committee, and they thought it would be of particular interest to the military members of the Knights. There was an immense crowd in attendance, and the creditable display of the Guards won its applause. A barbecue was given at the Schuetzen

Park, this afternoon, and was attended by about five thousand Knights and their

AGAINST INDISCRIMINATE PENSIONS.

Patriotic Resolutions Adopted by a New York

Post of Grand Army Veterans. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The following resolutions were adopted last night by N. L. Earnham Post, No. 458, G. A. R., of which Col. C. McK. Loeser is commander:

Whereas, It is apparent to this post that the action of some government officials and the ill-considered talk of some popularity-seeking legislators (notably Senator Ingalls, of Kansas), in regard to the pension laws, are calculated to do serious injury to the hardly-won reputation of good soldiers and to the Grand Army; and,

Whereas, The only veterans who are of right entitled to pensions are those whose pecuniary circumstances are so aufortunate as to justify them in burdening the country with their sup-port, and who, by wounds or disability incurred in the service of the country as combatants, are prevented from earning a living in their re-spective callings, as they might have done had such wounds or disabbilities not been incurred;

Whereas, The Grand Army of the Republic is an association organized for the purpose of en-abling old soldiers to take care of themselves and each other; and,

Whereas, As much real patriotism may be displayed by refraining, in time of peace, from inflicting unnecessary burdens on the country, as by coming to her defense in time of war; there-

Resolved. That any old soldier who applies for or accepts a pension, except under the conditions above set forth, is, in the opinion of this post, guilty of conduct calculated to injure the good men who were and are willing to give their blood and their lives for the country without any reward beyond the approval of their own con-sciences, and that honorable fame which is dear to every patriot; and,
Resolved, That this post strongly condemns any attempt to make use of the Grand Army of the Republic for political purposes, or as an en-gine to aid in dissipating the surplus that has been accumulated in the government Treasury by unwise and unnecessary taxation.

Demolished the Saloon.

LIMA, O., Oct. 10.—Several weeks ago the neighboring town of Lafayette passed a prohibition ordinance, and all of the saloons were closed. A few days ago a saloon-keeper of this city went to Lafayette and opened a place. He was waited upon by a committee who informed him that his business was not required there, but he continued, and the town officials got out an injunction to stop him. The judge decided in his favor, and he resumed business with more openness than ever. Early yesterday morning his saloon was bombarded by a crowd of several hundred persons. They came supplied with stones and sledge-hammers, and surrounding the place com-menced to storm it. The doors and windows were broken, and the crowd rushed in. The bar was battered down, mirrors broken down, the heads of barrels knocked in end and the contents wasted. The place was almost torn down, and everything ruined.

Liabilities of $3,000,000. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 10.—The assignees of the Riverside and Oswego mills have prepared a statement which shows total liabilities of $3,000,000, against which there are assets of $1,161,187.72, not including the plants. The plants, including all machinery and furniture, real estate, etc., aggregate $574,060, but the cost of both plants, as appears by the company's books, is no less than $1,548,000.

Mail Pouch Rifled at Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 19.—About 7 o'clock this evening a valuable mail bouch, weigh-ing 250 pounds, was stolen from a truck in the Grand Central Depot; and dragged 100 yards, and its contents rifled. It is not known what the value was. No clew to the

We have been treated like princes from the moment of our rescue by the English cruiser. There was only one sad accident to mar the joy of our rescue. Samuel March, one of our men, who had his head frightfully cut and bruised, died on the Forward on the way to Jamaica."

The accounts of Mr. Roby and Mr. Jones were in the same vein as that of Dr. Smith. The survivors left by rail this afternoon for Baltimore, the headquarters of the Navassa Phosphate Company.

A Jamaica newspaper was received at Baltimore to-day, giving the black man's side of the story. It differs little from the one already published.

It is stated that the President and the Secretary of the Treasury expect to see all of the internal revenue laws repealed at the approaching session of Congress, except that relating to intoxicating liquors used as a beverage. When this is done one collector can make all the collections for any of the States, while a number of the small revenue States will be thrown into one distorckeepers will be maintained, but the force of deputy collectors, who at present look after the tobacco and retail liquor traffic, can be dispensed with. This will reduce the list of collectors about 60 per cent., and the list of assistants probably 25 per cent., thus making an important move on the office-holders. It is stated that the President and the Sec-

CROPS OF THE COUNTRY.

Percentage of the Condition of the Various

Cereals-Average Yield of Wheat. Washington, Oct. 10.-The Department of Agriculture reports the general percentage of condition of corn at 91.7, against 90.9 month ago, and 92 for the crop of 1888 on the 1st of October. Condition of potatoes, 77.9. against 86.8 last October; of buckwheat, 90, against 92.1 last year; of tobacco, 80.5, against 85.7 in 1888. The preliminary estimate of yield per acre is 12.8 for wheat, 11.9 for rye and 22.2 for barley. The past month has been favorable for corn. Slight frosts north of the fortieth parallel injured late corn, but the percentage of damage was generally very small, as the crop was well matured in the third week of September. In the States of the week of September. In the States of the Ohio valley there was excess of moisture in May and June that retarded planting, and early growth prevented cultivation and delayed maturing, leaving some fields to be caught by the frosts of the 20th to the 25th of September. The best development of maize was in the Missouri valley. The best growth of the South was in the Gulf States. It could scarcely be improved in either district, though the yield per acre is much greater in the higher latitudes. Potatoes were injured east of the tudes. Potatoes were injured east of the Alleghenies by excess of moisture, causing rot. In West Virginia and Ohio similar reports are received. Drought reduced the yield in Michigan, though the quality is generally good. In the Mississippi valley the crop is more promising. In the Rocky mountain region, where the area is largely increased, the season has been unfavorable. The returns of yield per acre of wheat are in thresher measurement. This report is preliminary, as the local estimates will be tested by the record-books of the threshers' now coming in. The present averages for the principal States are 13.8 bushels in New York; Pennsylvania, 12.3; Ohio, 14.6; Michigan, 14.7; Indiana, 14.7; Illinois, 16; Wisconsin, 14.2; Minnesota, 14.6; Iowa, 13.1; Missouri, 13; Kansas, 18.4; Nebraska, 12; Dakota, 8.3; California, 15. Winter wheat was injured in many districts, during harvest and in the stack, by heavy rains, and is comparatively light, grading badly, thus reducing its weight and value. Its weight and quality will be the subject of further report, after the test of the scales in marketing. are in thresher measurement. This report in marketing.

MINOR MATTERS.

New Indiana Postmasters at New Castle, Winchester, Peru, and Rockville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 .- Capt. William F. Shelby has been appointed postmaster at New Castle. Mrs. Julia Loer, the present incumbent, resigns voluntarily, after serving over four years. Captain Shelby was a member of the Nineteenth Indiana, a splendid soldier, and he was indorsed by the patrons of the office. General Browne recommended the appointment over a month ago, and it has been daily expected ever

The postmaster at Winchester has resigned, to take effect Nov. 1, and William R. Way will be appointed. Mr. Way was a good soldier is an old citizen, at one time good soldier, is an old citizen, at one time deputy postmaster, and was chosen for appointment at a recent special election.

Other postmasters appointed by the President to-day, were John T. Stevens, at Peru, vice Wm. P. Hale, removed; Charles W. Stryker, at Rockville, vice Wm. E. Henkle, removed.

Two fourth-class Indiana postmasters were appointed to-day: Draper, Miana
